Dakpathar & Kalsi

Rock Edict of Ashoka at Kalsi

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE

A pear-shaped quartz rock with a 10 ft height, 10 ft length and 8 ft width at its base is the third among the 14 edicts that are spotted in so many other parts. This edict portrays Brahmi scripts and encompasses the king's reforms and advises to the people. It also enshrines the outline of an elephant with the word gajatam wrote in between its legs. Rendering of five Greek kings, Antiochus, Magus, Antigonus, Ptolemy, and Alexander helped the excavators to calculate the exact date of the edict, which comes around in 253 BC(2200 years).this rock was discovered by john fehrest in 1860.

Dehradun

Dehradun, also known as the Doon Valley, capital of the state of Uttarakhand. Lying at the foot hills of the Shivalik ranges in India, the city is said to have been founded by Guru Dronacharya (as per the Hindu Epic of Mahabharata). With the status of the capital of Uttarakhand, the city is experiencing a boom in its travel & tourism industry. It is situated close to Rishikesh, Haridwar, Gangotri, Yamunotri, Badrinath and Kedarnath, thus serving as the gateway to a world full of spirituality, harmony and adventure. Being situated close to the hills of Mussoorie, Dehradun boasts of a pleasant climate and exotic locales. Be it a tourist, shoppers, trekkers or pilgrims, Dehradun has something for everyone!

Dehradun Tourist Attractions

Forest Research Institute:

Forest Research Institute (FRI) is today counted amongst the best institutes in India dedicated to forest research. One of the major attractions of the institute is a museum, which exhibits a wide and extensive collection of botanical specimens. The museum remains open from Monday to Friday and is the perfect place to explore the vegetation gifted by the Earth. The Botanical Garden situated within the premises of FRI is another major attraction.

Tapkeshwar Mahadev:

Tapkeshwar Temple is situated amidst the picturesque outskirts of Dehradun. It is dedicated to Lord Shiva, as the God of strict rituals of “tap” (meditation). One can reach the temple only after climbing along flight of stairs. After reaching the top, you will encounter mesmerizing views of the valley below with the gushing river flowing nearby.

Sahastra Dhara

Thousand fold spring' is the literal meaning of the term Sahastradhara. It is a lovely waterfall, with a depth of 9 meters. What makes the torrent so popular is its therapeutic value since its water contains Sulphur. Besides its medicinal merits, the stream presents a pictorial environ where one can spend hours in the calmness of silence. The Baldi River and the caves exaggerate the aesthetic beauty of the site. Since this astonishing natural splendor is situated within the city limits, the tourists can easily reach to Sahastradhara. It poses a salubrious climate and so can be visited at any time. But the gorgeousness of the place is to be best viewed in the rainy season when the stream proposes the appearance of a gushing torrent. The mere sight of the gurgling waters fills one's soul with a vitalizing energy.

Day 3rd: Buffet breakfast .

After Breakfast depart for Local Site Seeing to Dehradun

Malsi Deer Park

Located at a distance of about 10 kms from clock tower Dehradun, Malsi Deer Park is one of the major tourist attractions for the visitors coming to this hill station. Situated within the Shivalik Himalayan foothills, this zoological garden is an ideal picnic spot where the authorities have understandably installed several slides for the kids to play about. Along with a majestic deer population, the Malsi Deer Park also features beautiful peacocks and the Nilgai antelope.

Buddha Temple Clement Town:

Uttarakhand is a hilly state in India known for its immense natural beauty, cool environment, and some prime Hindu religious sites. Dehradun is the capital of Uttarakhand. It's a charming little city that offers scenic surroundings and lots of interesting attractions for tourists to explore.

The Tibetan community of Dehradun constructed the Buddha Temple as the replica of a Tibetan monastery in 1965. Buddha Temple was built to protect and promote Tibetan culture in India, and lots of renovation and additions were done to the temple building and whole temple complex during later years. The main stupa of the temple, about 220 feet in height, is built in the Japanese architectural style
